

First Army

Welcome Foreign Military Attaches

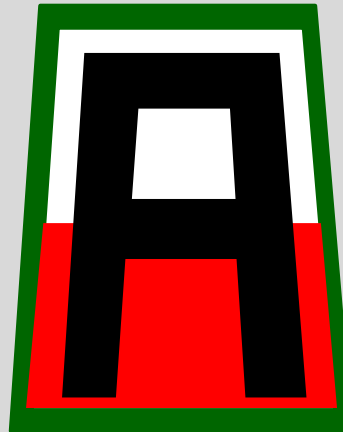

7 March 2013
MG Kevin R. Wendel

Mission Statement

First Army advises, assists and trains Reserve Component units during pre-mobilization periods. Conducts mobilization, training support, readiness validation, and deployment of alerted forces. Executes demobilization of Reserve Component forces in accordance with Department of the Army, and FORSCOM directives. Provides trained and ready forces in support of the Army Force Generation model. As directed, provides training to Joint, Combined, Interagency, and Active Army Forces.

UNCLASSIFIED

Bottom Line

First Army serves as FORSCOM's Executing Agent for:

- Mobilization Operations in the Continental United States (CONUS) ... plus Puerto Rico & the US Virgin Islands
- Active Component (AC) to Reserve Component (RC) training support in CONUS ... plus Puerto Rico & the US Virgin Islands
- Validating the Operational Reserve for Distributed Non-Deploying Units and Regionally Aligned Forces (RAF) Employment

First Army provides trained and ready forces covering the full range of military operations responsive to the Combatant Commanders. We are the Army's enabler, supporting the long-term readiness of our Nation's Reserve Component capabilities, whether current Deploying Rotational Forces, or Rotational Regionally Aligned and Operational Support Forces preparing to meet our Nation's Contingencies.

What We Do and Where We Go...

Mobilization

We Mobilize, Train, Validate, Deploy and Demobilize Reserve Component (RC) Units and Soldiers:

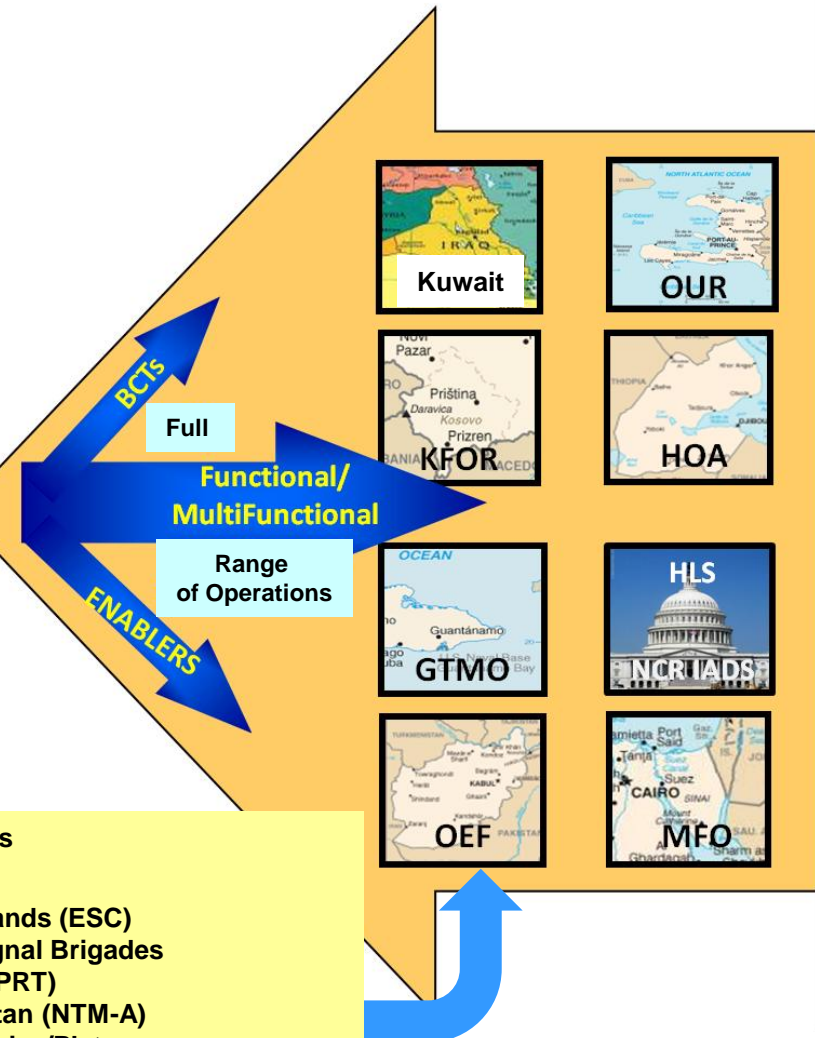

- When RC units/Soldiers are mobilized for Active Federal Service under Title 10 USC
- Upon Mobilization RC units and Soldiers are Attached to First Army
- First Army shares Administrative Control (ADCON) of mobilized RC units/Soldiers with the supporting Installation/Garrison

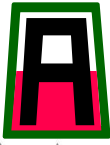

Multi-Component
We are who we train

Examples

Brigade Combat Teams (BCT),
Expeditionary Sustainment Commands (ESC)
Aviation Battalions/Companies, Signal Brigades
Provincial Reconstruction Teams (PRT)
NATO Training Mission – Afghanistan (NTM-A)
Engineer Route Clearance Companies/Platoons
Security Force Advisory Brigades (SFAB)
Security Force Advisory and Assistance Teams (SFAAT)

Training Support to RC Collective Training...

Current Collective Training Strategy

...tailored to meet the needs of our Combatant Commanders

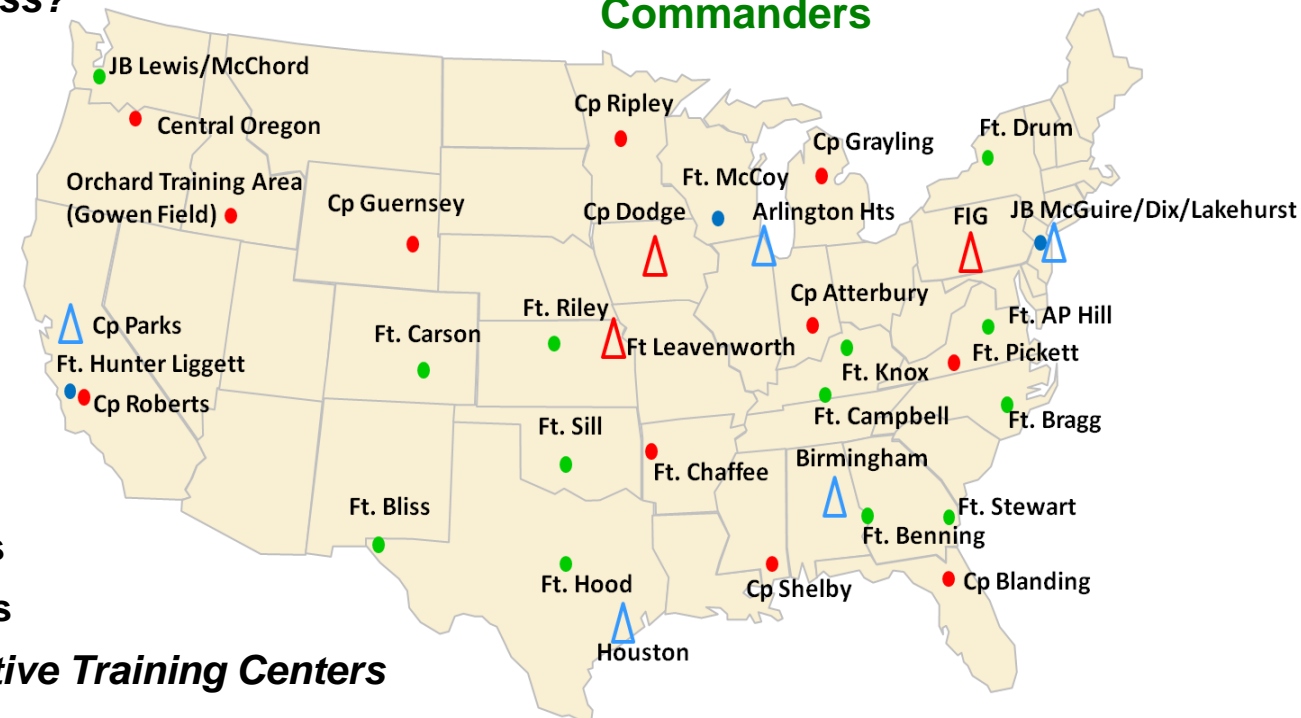

➤ How do we Sustain Readiness?

- Combat Training Centers
- Division/Brigade War Fighter Exercises
- Exportable Combat Training Capability
- Warrior Exercises
- Combat Support Training Exercises
- Command Post Exercises
- Regionally Aligned Forces

➤ Distributed Regional Collective Training Centers

➤ Integrate Live – Virtual – Constructive - Gaming

- University of Southern California, Institute for Creative Technology

Soldiers participating in Exercises
 FY 13 – 51.8 K
 FY 14 – 58.8 K

Collective Training Exercises are the lynch-pin for building and sustaining RC readiness

Regionally Aligned Forces

Purpose: Regionally Aligned Forces provide the COCOM with up to Joint Task Force capable headquarters with scalable, tailorable capabilities to enable him to shape the environment.

Forces: Those Army units:

- assigned to combatant commands;
- allocated to a combatant command; and
- those capabilities distributed and prepared by the Army for COCOM regional missions.

Includes: Army Total Force organizations and capabilities which are:

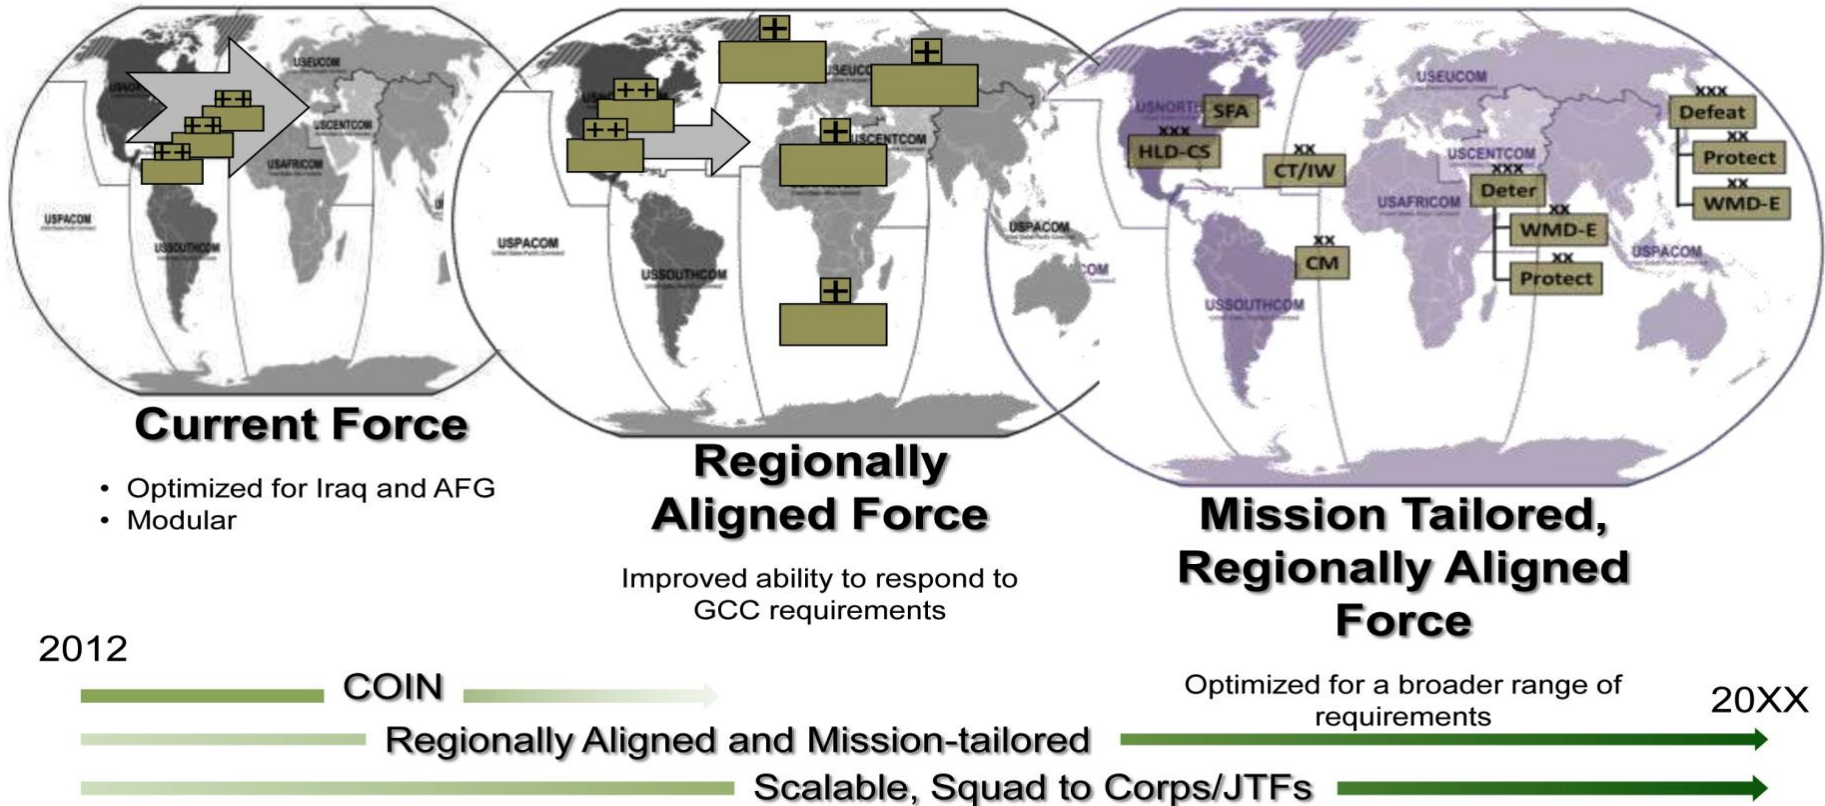

- forward stationed;
- operating in a combatant command area of responsibility; and
- supporting from outside the area of responsibility. (reach-back; support from outside the AOR)

Mission Set: Regional missions are driven by COCOM requirements, & includes:

- an understanding of the cultures, geography, languages, and militaries of the countries where they are most likely to be employed; and
- expertise in how to impart military knowledge and skills to others.

Army Through 2020 and Beyond

The Army will build on current capabilities to improve responsiveness, agility and precision for a range of contingencies
